

Aaron Miller BA

Seminar Facilitator
aaron.miller@newleaf-ca.com

“What we do in life...echoes in eternity.” - Maximus, Gladiator

Contentment is the word that best describes Aaron!

Aaron’s energy, coupled with a passion for effective learning makes the seminars that he facilitates highly engaging and meaningful for the Participants.

Aaron is a Client Partner at Newleaf Training and Development whose mission is to help people and organizations be their best. Newleaf Training and Development deliver seminars, keynotes, coaching and online to help people better manage themselves, lead others and build business financial intelligence.

Aaron’s previous work prepared him for his success in the field of professional business training and development:

Aaron has extensive experience working in and leading teams to achieve the vision and mission of the organization while operating on a noble set of values. He also serves as a Professor on Leadership and Administration at a leading university in the Los Angeles area.

Aaron holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters Degree.

Aaron serves in a variety of volunteer roles to be of service to others.

Married with children, Aaron relishes family time and coaches his son’s soccer team. He also enjoys reading extensively, cooking and maintaining his health.

Seminars available

- Art of Execution
- Business Financial Intelligence
- Charting the Course
- Customer Centered Service
- Emotional Intelligence (EQ) for Manager
- Leading Others
- Personal and Interpersonal Effectiveness
- Positively Reducing Conflict
- Presentation and Facilitation Skills
- Team Excellence
- Time Management
- Work Life Balance 2.0

Also available:

keynotes

coaching

online

Contact Us:

newleaf-ca.com

newleaf™

helping people & organizations be their best